Be very careful of the pedaling in this etude. It is somewhat complicated at the beginning.

$\text{♩} = 138$

The musical score consists of three systems of piano notation. The first system begins with a tempo marking of $\text{♩} = 138$ and a dynamic marking of mf. The second system includes a first ending marked '1.' and a section labeled 'A' with a dynamic of mp, followed by an 'echo' section with a dynamic of pp. A dynamic of f is indicated at the start of the second system, and a dynamic of mf is shown below the staff. A double-headed arrow labeled '2' indicates a second ending. The third system starts with a second ending marked '2.' and a dynamic of p, followed by a dynamic of f and a crescendo leading to a final f dynamic.

Pedaling and Dampening: Etudes

The first system of the etude consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It features a melodic line with a long slur over the first two measures, followed by eighth-note patterns. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is placed below the staff, with a crescendo hairpin leading to a f (forte) dynamic. The lower staff continues with a bass line of eighth notes. A double bar line is present after the second measure of the upper staff.

The second system of the etude consists of two staves. The upper staff starts with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature, then changes to 2/4 and back to 4/4. It contains a melodic line with a slur and a dynamic marking of p (piano) that crescendos to mf (mezzo-forte) and then f (forte). The lower staff has a bass line with a dynamic marking of f (forte) and a slur. A double bar line is present after the second measure of the upper staff.

The third system of the etude consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a treble clef and a 5/4 time signature, then changes to 4/4, 2/4, and 3/4. It features a melodic line with a slur and a dynamic marking of p (piano) that crescendos to f (forte), followed by a ff (fortissimo) dynamic. The lower staff has a bass line with a dynamic marking of f (forte) and a slur. A double bar line is present after the second measure of the upper staff.

The fourth system of the etude consists of two staves. The upper staff starts with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature, featuring a melodic line with a slur and a dynamic marking of f (forte). The lower staff has a bass line with a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) and a slur. There are 'x' marks above some notes in the upper staff, likely indicating dampening. A double bar line is present after the second measure of the upper staff.

Pedaling and Dampening: Etudes

The first system of the etude consists of three staves. The top staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The middle staff is empty, with a dynamic marking of mf at the beginning. The bottom staff contains a bass line with chords and a dynamic marking of mp. The system concludes with the instruction "D.C. al coda".

The CODA section is marked with a double bar line and a diamond symbol. It consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a dynamic marking of mp and features a melodic line with slurs. The bottom staff begins with a dynamic marking of f and features a bass line with chords and slurs. A dynamic marking of mf appears in the middle of the system.

The final section of the etude consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a dynamic marking of f and features a melodic line with slurs. The bottom staff begins with a dynamic marking of f and features a bass line with chords and slurs. The section concludes with the instruction "molto rit." followed by a dashed line.
